I am passionate about fair and equitable policy and governance, always seeking to enhance my skills to better serve the community and fulfil my role as a Councillor. During the last council term, I have worked to create opportunities in education and youth development, achieving significant progress. If re-elected, I will continue advocating for transparent governance, supporting family and youth services, and driving economic growth to improve livability. A holistic approach to education, housing, and family opportunities is essential to building a strong, economically viable future for Parkes Shire.

Do not settle for rhetoric, when you can look at proven work, team work and progress. I hope I can represent my community again
