Common sense approach, integrity centred, and passion for regional and rural communities.

I have served as a Nsw Police Officer and Operations Manager with the Nsw Ses. I have volunteered with numerous organisation and community groups and support economic development opportunities focussing on supporting our small businesses. I support all of the shire and believe all villages and smaller communities need to have access and equal opportunities. A conservative view on keeping things simple and getting the fundamental things right, for council focussing on our core responsibilities such as water, roads, sewage and waste, and lobbying for improvements in health, education and employment to bridge the gap between country and city.
