(may include statements of beliefs and policies - all information must be restricted to the space provided below).

I believe I have much to offer to the community as a Councilor. My past experience ranges from Festival and event organisation in numerous communities. 2 yrs as Secretary for Weddin Naidoc , 12 mths as secretary for Grenfell Men'S Shed has given me many skills. As an artist and a performer, I have come to know many residents over the past 4 yrs and have developed much knowledge of their concerns, regarding issues within their Shire. I am quite open and approachable on many levels through this as people feel comfortable. Public speaking is what I regard one of my skills. I am adaptable and learn quickly. I have a strong connection with Grenfell as my parents resided here and my brother was born here. I am confident I can represent Weddin.
