(may include statements of beliefs and policies - all information must be restricted to the space provided below).

If re-elected, I will continue advocating against the state government's Transport Orientated Development (Tod) State Environmental Planning Policy threatening to ruin much of Ku-Ring-Gai and elsewhere. Council must maintain its legal action against the state government.

Having saved the former Gordon Bowling Club to become a public park, I will continue defending our natural environment. It is essential to our quality of life.

Our cultural heritage enriches everyone. I will continue to try to preserve our fine old homes and revive the Marian Street Theatre and cultural centre.

Councillors should be a Council of the Ten, but all councillors have to want it.

My wife Alicia and I have lived in Gordon since 1997, raising our six children.
