Serving as the current Deputy Mayor, and as a Councillor for St Ives Ward since November 2018 has been a true privilege. St Ives Ward has been my home for 15 years, drawn by Ku-ring-gai's leafy environment and strong community. I am committed to preserving this character for future generations.

As an advocate for mental health, disability services, community safety, and domestic violence prevention, I ensure all voices are heard, prioritising transparency and open communication.

I've served on several committees, including St Ives Rotary, PCYC, ALGWA, the LGNSW Board, and the Liberal Women's Council Executive. My background spans banking and finance, small business, entrepreneurship and project management etc. If re-elected, I am eager to continue serving with integrity, compassion, and a vision for a better Ku-ring-gai.
