With 8 years experience as a councillor I understand the strengths and weaknesses of the organisation. I am more resilient than ever at standing up for this community, which knows what it wants. I look for those boundaries where we can find commonality with our histories and values to collectivise a better outcome. As a professional carer with Ndis I think caring about our community is critical. Helping others with their needs makes us stronger. As Chair of Arts Mnc, I value the power of our narratives to tell our stories about who we are and what is important to us, and why this matters. As President of Bowraville Community Centre I put these thoughts into local action and as a member of the Alp I want fairer outcomes and climate action.
