With 10 years in management and data analytics, I will bring strong analytical skills to ensure efficiency and effectiveness in council operations. Holding two Bachelor'S Degrees in different fields, I offer a holistic perspective to maximise community benefits with existing resources.

I am passionate about:

- Efficient and effective use of the resources we have.
- Ensuring the highest ethical standards in all council activities.
- Embracing and building on our diverse community.

My vision for Parkes is a united community, working together for a better future, and I am dedicated to helping this happen.
