I feel very privileged to have been a Councilor for the past 12 years. I believe that I have represented the community as a consistent voice advocating for service provision that is reflective of community needs. I have been steadfastly pursuing the Mps upgrade, addressing our Doctor shortage and the need for a Heli Pad. I speak up respectfully in Council raising community concerns regarding the closure of the village tips, rates, road issues and finances.

I wholeheartedly support Taylor Park Inclusive Play Space, a future Cultural Centre, more creative installations, the Henry Lawson Festival - I see tourism experiences as vital to our economy and identity. With years of experience, my Local Government knowledge I have much to contribute
