I am campaigning for Sydney Council to prioritise People Before Profits and deliver a Liveable City with Housing Justice. Our Council is one of the richest in the country – it is hoarding $800 million in their accounts. We could be a beacon for genuinely affordable housing across the country, but scurrilous property investors hold sway. I am a housing co-operative tenant and have been working with housing group Action for Public Housing to stop public housing demolition in Glebe, Waterloo and South Eveleigh and expand housing co-operatives and beautiful public housing. We are demanding Council build or buy Council co-operative and public housing, fill vacant homes and help freeze rents to solve the housing crisis.
