After a career founding, growing, then selling a Sydney based recruitment and labour hire services business, Jocellin turned her focus to optimising the growth and reach of two national charitable organisations that focus on rural communities, youth, education and local economic outcomes in the role Ceo.

Combining more than 25 years of executive experience, the focal point of Jocellin'S work is stakeholder engagement, building engagement and capacity in rural Australia. Bringing business leaders, government and communities in rural Australia together, she facilitates advisory groups that inspire and support individual, organisation and community-wide growth, and leadership.
