Agency overview

The New South Wales Electoral Commission exists to deliver trusted and independent systems, processes, oversight and engagement that support democracy in New South Wales.

Our vision is to maintain confidence in the integrity of the democratic process and make it easy for people to understand and participate.

Our work includes:

- running elections
- communicating with and engaging the public
- providing trusted processes for political participants (including candidates, parties, donors, third-party campaigners, lobbyists and associated entities) to comply with their legal obligations, and regulating their compliance
- supporting transparency by overseeing and publishing disclosures of political donations and expenditure and registers of political parties, candidates, agents, third-party campaigners, political lobbyists and associated entities; advising on and advocating for improvements to legislation
- investigating possible offences and enforcing electoral laws.

Responsibility for these functions is divided under legislation between the 3-member NSW Electoral Commission (an independent statutory body) and the NSW Electoral Commissioner (an independent statutory officer). Our staff are employed in the NSW Public Service under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013. The head of our staff agency is the NSW Electoral Commissioner, who is also an ex officio member of the NSW Electoral Commission.

The NSW Electoral Commission and Electoral Commissioner exercise their functions independently and are accountable to the NSW Parliament, through its Joint Standing Committee on Electoral Matters, with respect to the administration of elections and the regulation and enforcement of electoral and lobbying laws. Our four Divisions - Elections, Funding, Disclosure, Compliance and General Counsel, Information Services and Corporate - collaborate closely, to enable us to deliver end-to-end democratic processes and effective engagement with our stakeholders and audiences.

Our strong and positive working culture is reflected in our organisational behaviours - Collaborative, Customer-centred; Solution focused, Transparent and Responsive - and anchored in the NSW Public Service values of Integrity, Trust, Service and Accountability.
