Part E. Qualifications for nominating candidates

Each candidate for election must be nominated by not less than six (6) persons (other than the candidate) each of whom must be entitled to vote in the election.

A person is entitled to vote and nominate a candidate if he/she is a producer who, during the previous calendar year harvested more than 20 tonnes of MIA wine grapes, but does not include:

a) in the case of a corporation:

- i) a grower that is also a winery, or
- ii) a grower in which a winery has a controlling interest, or

b) in the case of an individual:

- i) a grower who is also a winery, or
- ii) a grower who is a director of a corporation that is a winery and who (as a grower) supplies the winery with all of the MIA wine grapes that he or she harvests.

A primary producer that is a corporation, partnership, trustee or legal personal representative (whether agent, administrator, executor or otherwise) for a person or an estate must nominate, by notice in writing, an individual to be enrolled and vote on behalf of the primary producer at any election.

That person, who must not already be enrolled on the final roll in some other capacity, is deemed in these cases to be the producer for the purposes of the election, and entitled to vote and nominate a candidate.
