

Postal vote application

NSW Aboriginal Land Council elections

The Aboriginal Land Council elections will be held on 24 February 2024. This form is used to apply for a postal vote to be sent to your address. If you vote by post you will not have to visit a polling place in your region on election day.

Postal vote packs will be sent from Tuesday 6 February 2024

- Voting members will receive postal vote packs containing: ballot paper, instructions for postal voters, and a postal vote declaration envelope.
- If you apply for a postal vote but then decide to vote in person you will not be able to vote unless you hand the postal vote pack in at the polling place for cancellation.
- It is an offence to vote or attempt to vote if you are not entitled to vote or have already voted in an election. It is also an offence to make a false or wilfully misleading statement in this application.

Applications must be received by 6pm on Monday 19 February 2024

Lodge your application the way that suits you.
