I believe we need to change the way our councils works. We don't want to choose someone to make all our decisions for us for the next 4 years. We want to directly influence decisions that Council is making. I am standing to be the first direct democracy leader - to make decisions on each item coming to council as my community tells me to. To do this I will notify communities of upcoming decisions, make it easy for them to give feedback, ensure that decisions are made by the community in a way that includes all of us and work to ensure that decisions are made with expert advice from the community.
